

AEI Tèxtils presents the online training course of the European project FACTIVE

The MOOC is divided into new learning units with contents, in video format, that revolve around sustainability and circularity within the advanced textile materials sector.

AEI Tèxtils is the coordinator of the FACTIVE project, which aims to improve the quality and relevance of the training offer in the textile and clothing sector.

It does this through the development of an innovative learning method to improve the level and evaluation of student skills and to bring the quality of vocational training in line with the modern, creative and innovative needs of the textile and clothing industry in Europe today.
